

United Way
of Northern British Columbia

Northwest - Prince Rupert

Success by 6® Initiatives in Northern BC

Community and Program

Program Description - Prince Rupert

Westview Childcare Centre: PACES Hub

PACES Hub is a parent and preschooler program . A regular preschool program including snack time, circle time, and free play are implemented throughout half of the day and parent programs are run during the remainder of the day. Major funding for this project is received from CAP-C.

Conrad Strong Start - School Dist. #52: Drum Making

Materials were purchased for drum making and a volunteer instructor was obtained.

Conrad Strong Start - School Dist. #52: Cedar Bark Weaving

Materials were purchased for cedar bark weaving and a volunteer instructor was obtained.

Pineridge Strong Start - School Dist. #52: Music Lessons

A music instructor was obtained to provide music lessons and a stereo was purchased for the classroom.

Westview Childcare Centre: Babysitting Course

A babysitting course was provided to children in attendance at PACES HUB and the Kaien Anti-Poverty Society program.

Westview Childcare Centre: Parenting Program

Facilitator cost to prepare and facilitate Music and Movement classes at the ECD Roosevelt HUB. (2007)

The Berry Patch: Mother Goose

The Mother Goose program was provided by Helen Moore to 22 parents and 22 infants at the Berry Patch. Funding for this program was also received from the North Coast Literacy Now project.

Westview Childcare Centre: Parenting Program

Betty Ciccone was obtained to provide parenting courses to parents at the PACES Hub program one afternoon per week. Lunch was also provided.

Westview Childcare Centre: Yoga Program

Yoga was provided by Connie Meisner at PACES HUB
