

Bright Ideas For Really Great United Way Campaigns

(Our thanks go to the United Way of the Lower Mainland for providing information towards the development of this document)

Themes and Special Events

Themes and special events can be fun component of your workplace campaign. They can also help raise money, motivate people, increase awareness, reward teamwork and really set the stage for your campaign.

Quality is more important than quantity. Select events with a proven track record that involve as many employees as possible and will be cost effective in terms of time and energy.

Event Timing

If you plan to run a fundraising event, hold it after your employee canvass so that individuals do not feel that the money they are spending on various events replaces their payroll, credit or cash contributions.

If your event is simply intended to create awareness, any time is a good time to hold the event. However, you should consider your campaign strategy and pick a time that is good for both your organization and its campaign.

Things to Think About

Before choosing an event for your campaign ask yourself the following questions:

What do you hope to accomplish with this event?

Do you want to raise money, increase awareness or boost employee morale?

Has a similar event been held at your organization before?

If so, you should determine how successful it was as a fundraiser, awareness builder and/or morale booster. If it wasn't successful, was it due to poor planning or a general lack of interest? You can learn from past mistakes and successes.

How much time will you need to organize this event?

Consider the time commitment the event you are considering will consume. If it will take a month to plan, organize and execute, you can't expect to hold the event in one week.

If you are the chair of your organization's workplace campaign, you may be too busy planning the employee campaign to run a special event. In this case, recruit someone who is resourceful, creative and able to plan a special event.

Encourage senior management to be visible and participate in the promotion of the event and the actual event.

What are your resources?

Before committing to an event, you need to think about the resources you have on hand.

Is there someone on your committee who has helped organize this type of event before? Does a committee member know a local business owner who might donate prizes? Consider the tangible and intangible assets available.

What is your budget?

Plan a budget and stick to it. Depending on the type of special event you are running, there may be very real costs involved. Include volunteer time, staff time, program supplies, planning, food and facility expenses when determining the full cost of an event.

You can decrease costs by soliciting donations of supplies, services and facilities. If you solicit donations from a source outside of your organization, it is important to clarify to the donor that this donation is above and beyond their normal contribution to the United Way campaign.

If sponsorship is not an option, compare the estimated cost of the event to the amount of money you expect to raise. You need to make sure the event is financially viable if the main objective of the event is to raise funds.

Do you have a back-up plan?

It's always a good idea to come up with some alternate ideas in case an event proves impossible. You may also need a contingency plan if your event is held outdoors and it rains.

From poverty to possibility We help people who are struggling financially get back on their feet	Healthy people, strong communities We help people get healthy and stay healthy, physically and mentally.	All that kids can be We help kids get the education and opportunities they deserve.

Most Commonly Used Event Ideas

Seeing is Believing Tours

The number one event to raise awareness is Agency Tours or Seeing is Believing Tours. They are one of the most effective and impactful things you can do in your workplace campaign. Employees see firsthand how their contributions are working and renew their enthusiasm for the upcoming campaign.

Many companies schedule tours of a variety of agencies so employees can choose which agency(s) to visit. If you are unable to schedule tours for your entire staff, we strongly encourage you and your campaign team of volunteers to tour an agency.

Balloon Pop

Employees donate prizes for this event, which is a variation of a traditional raffle. Before filling a balloon with helium, put a note inside with the name of a prize. Employees pay $2 to buy a balloon and pop it to find out what prize they won.

Barbecue

Advertise well in advance what you will be serving at the barbecue. Have your tickets on sale a week ahead of time so you will have an idea of how many steaks or hamburgers/hotdogs you'll need. You should be able to purchase your meat/buns at a reduced cost based on volume. Visit a wholesale distributor to negotiate a donation of supplies (plastic plates, utensils, etc.). If you are serving a large number of people, have at least 4 to 5 gas barbecues. Encourage senior management to cook. Provide chefs with United Way aprons.

Casual Day

Sell Casual Day stickers or "I'm Dressed this way for United Way" stickers (available from UWNBC) allowing employees purchasing them to dress casually on certain days (usually Fridays). Employees purchase stickers for $2 to $5 each.

Employee Raffle

Ask employees to contribute something special for a raffle prize: homemade pies, lunch with a co-worker, or a weekend stay at a vacation cabin or condo. Those employees who turn in pledge forms early receive three raffle tickets. Employees turning in pledge forms after the "early" date, but before the campaign's final event, receive one raffle ticket.

Silent Auction

Ask each department to pitch in to sponsor a theme basket (golf, chocolates, spa day), and then hold a silent auction to give the baskets away. Or hold a silent auction for talents and services donated by employees: car detailer, golf lessons, personal training, etc.

Win the CEO/President's Parking Spot

Raffle the use of his/her parking spot for a week.

Bake Sale

Arrange for employees to donate baked goods. Advertise well in advance with posters, memos and bulletins. Have volunteer employees available to help set up, serve and clean up afterwards.

Pancake Breakfast

Create awareness of the breakfast in the community by distributing flyers to the neighbouring houses and let the media know. Employees are asked to sell breakfast tickets to family members. Negotiate with your cafeteria or a wholesale distributor for a donation of supplies or a discount. Advertise well in advance in the community, especially if there is a school or other workplaces near by, with posters, flyers and letters. Approach the CEO and senior management to serve breakfast.

Coffee Cart

Arrange for volunteers to bring a coffee and snack cart throughout the office one day. You should advertise in advance.

Solicit donations of coffee and snacks from suppliers or ask co-workers to contribute baked goods. If you do have to purchase items, make sure you sell them at a profit.

While selling coffee and snacks, distribute UWNBC campaign information.

Miniature Golf

Build a nine-hole course featuring ramps, water and sand around the office. The lowest score will take home a tacky golfing sport coat. Interested twosomes return an entry form, bring a putter the day of the event, and pay an appropriate entry fee.

Ticket Giveaway/Gift Certificates

Give free tickets to movies, theatre productions, amusement centres and other local attractions for pledge incentives.

Give movie passes to every employee who meets the challenge of pledging a certain dollar amount. Enter the names of all employees who turn in a signed pledge form during the first hour following the kick-off into a special drawing.

Why we do what we do

We want everyone to have the chance to live up to his or her potential and be a contributing member of his or her community. And we want our communities to be healthy, vibrant places to live, work and raise families.

How do we do it?

We help you identify the issues that are important to your local community. Then we work with a variety of people and organizations in the community to address the whole range of issues. And we invest in a combination of programs and services that will get at the root causes of those issues.

Other Event Ideas

Executive Fantasy Auction

Executives at your organization create "fantasy" packages, which employees can bid on at a special auction: cooking the winning bidder a special dish, singing at a wedding, party or special event, mowing the winner's lawn, changing the winner's car oil, baby-sitting the winner's children, washing the winner's car, washing the winner's windows, etc.

Carnival and Talent Show

Hold a carnival and talent show to kick off your workplace campaign. As a part of the program, have a group of executives perform songs, with written lyrics to fit UWNBC.

An executive dunking booth is part of the carnival games, giving employees the chance to dunk their favourite executive. Employees can participate in traditional carnival games such as the egg/spoon race, ring toss and ducky races.

The finale event is the Mr. or Mrs. United Way Pageant where divisions nominate a contestant to compete in the pageant. Each pageant contestant must educate the audience about one UWNBC grantee during the talent competition and the audience votes by placing money in large water jugs.

Battle of the Sexes

It's the men against the women in the company to see which one gets the highest percent participation.

At the kick-off meeting, have a short game show in which 2 men and 2 women "volunteer" to be contestants. Women have to answer questions about topics that men know a lot about, and vice versa.

Best Shoes Contest

Line up senior management and/or other employees for some unique mug shots – shoes only. Hold a contest before your campaign kicks off to see if employees can figure out who's who, then have them vote for the "Best Shoes" at the company kickoff.

United Way Trivia

A United Way agency is featured each day for a week in a well-traveled area. With the display, a question about the agency is posted. Employees who turn in ballots with the correct answers are entered in a draw.

On a Clear Day

Company, executives and committee members wash every car window in the parking lot and attach a balloon with a flyer explaining that they want everyone to have a "clear" picture of what United Way does for the community.

Halloween Pumpkin Carving Contest

Plan a Halloween theme and hold a pumpkin-carving contest. Find a local business willing to donate pumpkins for your organization to sell to your employees. Employees buy pumpkins for their families to use in the contest. Charge $5 to enter and $1 per vote. Award prizes for various categories; best traditional, most creative, best effort by group, best effort by an individual. Throw a party to end your campaign.

Ornament Raffle

Buy or have donated an artificial tree. Employees bring in ornaments, either purchased or handmade to hang on tree. Raffle them off or hold a silent auction for each ornament.

Who we help

The United Way helps one in three people in Northern BC. The people we help are all around us – our neighbours, our relatives, our friends.

The work we do focuses on three key areas:

- we help people who may be struggling financially do the things necessary to get back on their feet and support themselves;
- we help people and families get the health and social services they need to stay strong and connected to their communities;
- we help kids get the education they deserve, starting at the earliest possible age, and continuing through to adulthood.

We also provide leadership in bringing people together to create lasting solutions that are unique to each community.

And ultimately, we help improve the quality of life in Northern BC by advancing the common good.
